Burton Bradstock is well known for its enviable position on the Jurassic Coast, with its iconic sandstone cliffs and rolling countryside. Burton Beach and the village are within easy walking distance of the Jurassic Retreat development, with fantastic eateries including the award-winning Hive Beach Cafe, the Seaside Boarding House, the Three Horseshoes and the Anchor Inn.

The seaside fishing village of West Bay and the bustling market town of Bridport are just 3 miles from the development, with a vibrant culture, arts & antiques scene and farmers markets. The South West Coast Path is the best way to explore this dramatic coastline and it runs past just 5 minutes from the park. Further afield you will find popular resorts such as Lyme Regis and Weymouth, as well as iconic coastal landmarks including Durdle Door, Chesil Beach, Lulworth Cove and Old Harry Rocks.
