Discover Burton Bradstock and the Jurassic Coast...

Burton Bradstock is a large, pretty 16th Century village, famous for its enviable position on the Jurassic Coast and a sought-after location for holiday homes. The village benefits from two highly regarded village pubs, The Anchor Inn and The Three Horseshoes. There is also a post office & farm shop, a church, a primary school, a library, a village green, a convenience store and a play park. Enjoy relaxed days following the many footpaths along the meandering River Bride and past the traditional thatched cottages.

The village is just a five minute walk from Jurassic Retreat across the fields, as is Burton Beach, with its famous golden cliffs. As well as spectacular views and walks on the South West Coast Path and great sea fishing opportunities, here you will also find the award-winning Hive Beach Cafe with its fresh local seafood and homemade cakes, and the Seaside Boarding House perched on the clifftop - a great place for a breakfast to start your day, or a cocktail while watching the sun go down. The village can be found between Bridport and Weymouth on the spectacular Jurassic Coast Road, which enjoys amazing views over Chesil Beach and the coastline from Portland Bill to Start Point in Devon.

Burton Bradstock is located close to the centre of the Jurassic Coast, a 96 mile stretch of coastline with World Heritage Status, ranking it alongside the Grand Canyon and Great Barrier Reef. The layers of rock along the coastline can be read like a book and they reveal the history of the earth across 185 million years.

The market town of Bridport and the fishing village of West Bay are just three miles from Jurassic Retreat. With a fantastic reputation for quality food and art, Bridport has a friendly and vibrant culture. The town has a rich history and heritage and the antiques scene and independant shops are well-loved, as are the regular street markets, farmers markets and vintage markets. There is a wide range of events throughout the year including Bridport Hat Festival, the Melplash Agricultural Show and Bridport Carnival.

Further afield, you will find popular locations such as Lyme Regis, Durdle Door & Lulworth Cove, Weymouth & Portland and Corfe Castle.

“Larkfield is the ideal park for us and the dogs to explore this area of glorious coastline!”
